

Dear Reader,

Another week, another newsletter.

As is traditional, we've hand-picked five of the more interesting stories of the week and included them below to keep you up to

Don't forget to visit our website www.marsecreview.com for many more nuggets of news.

If you have a friend or colleague that would like to receive our newsletter, please forward this email to them with the suggestio

Have an enjoyable weekend,

Maritime Security Review Team

Catch up on some of this weeks stories:

North and South Korea exchange fire

North and South Korea have exchanged fire into the sea across the disputed western sea border after North Korean shells landed in its territorial waters, South K

Gibraltar 'incursion'

The Spanish ambassador has been summoned to the Foreign Office after a "serious incursion" by Spanish ships into waters off Gibraltar.

Port2Port West Africa denies wrongdoing

Port2Port West Africa can confirm that two of its contractors were arrested yesterday by the JTF in Bayelsa State, Nigeria, following a detainment of 7 days as p.

South China Sea dispute

The Philippines has submitted evidence to a UN tribunal hearing its case against China's territorial claims in the South China Sea.

US Navy tests robotic fire-fighters

Fire-fighting robots designed to withstand intense heat are to be tested by the US Navy this summer. The Shipboard Autonomous Fire-fighting Robot (SAFFR) ha