

Friday 24 January, 2014

Dear Reader,

Pirates, drug busts, military and murder – read on if that’s spiked your curiosity!

Don’t forget to visit our website www.marsecreview.com for many more nuggets of news.

If you have a friend or colleague that would like to receive our newsletter, please forward this email to them with the suggestion that they visit our subscription page.

Have an enjoyable weekend,

Maritime Security Review Team

MSR subscribers can take advantage of a 20% discount rate when quoting the code MSR_21923 with their registration

Catch up on some of this weeks stories:

Apprehension Of Suspects

On Saturday 18 January 2014, the EU Naval Force flagship FS Siroco along with Japanese assets released the crew of a suspected pirate mother-ship Dhow.

HMCS Toronto interdicts heroin shipment off Tanzania

Combined Maritime Forces ship Her Majesty's Canadian Ship Toronto has seized approximately 280kg of high-grade heroin off the coast of Tanzania, close to Zanzibar Island.

St Lucia murder

The sister-in-law of a British man who was murdered after attackers boarded his boat in the Caribbean has said the family is "shocked and shattered".

Abe urges Asia military restraint

Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe has told an audience at the World Economic Forum in Davos that "military expansion" must be restrained in Asia.

Inquiry calls after migrants die

The UN has called for an inquiry after a boat carrying migrants capsized while being towed by a Greek coastguard vessel, leaving up to 12 dead.

African Security:
The West African Coastal Surveillance
and Maritime Security Summit for 2014

Defence
a division of ICFE

